GAZETTE CLEANINGS.

Trains both in on time yesterday. Jaffa Bros. store will be closed Monday on account of holiday.

The floor of the Sumner House verandah has been treated to a coat of paint.

The excavation for the cellar of Eugene Reilly's new building is being made.

Severe and destructive storms of wind and rain are reported in Missouri and Kansas.

Mr. Edward Henry thinks of bringing his family to this city and becoming a permanent resident.

Dr. Cunningham was out taking the sunshine yesterday morning in front of the St. Nicholas hotel.

Miss Frankie Rogers is able to be about again and will leave to-morrow for a visit to Colorado.

A new addition has been made to Las Vegas. North of the Buena Vista addition; and separated from it by a new street called Garfield street.

Services at the Presbyterian church on West Side at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., by Rev. J. C. Eastman. Sunday-school at 9:45 a. m. All are invited.

The Trinidad News complains that the town is infested by a number of crooks, and that several hold-ups have occurred there within the past week.

W. H. Carter has opened a notion store in Stern's block, south side of plaza, and is prepared to supply the trade with fresh candies, choice cigars, etc.

A number of our citizens who are Knight Templars, will go down to Albuquerque to assist in laying the corner stone of the new Masonic Temple at that place.

Messrs. Payne & Bartlett have handsomely carpeted their jewelry store which adds much to the tasteful and attractive arrangement of their place of business.

Calvin Fisk sold yesterday ten town lots for $1,400, and Marcus & Clemens building and lot next to the Optic Block, on line of street railroad, for one thousand dollars.

A fatal form of diphtheria is prevailing among the children at Anton Chico. Some five cases have proven fatal. Among those was a child of Mr. Leonard of Mr. Harrison.

M. Whiteman, our live and thorough-going general merchandise man, has shipped between eighty and ninety thousand pounds of goods to his branch establishment at White Oaks.

An engine and a burro collided night before last near the depot and the anomaly, a dead burro, was the consequence. The engine, as we understand, suffered no serious damage for the wonder.

Mr. F. De Fronville will commence a public school at San Miguel, this county, about the first of November. He has been teaching a private school at La Trinitaria during the past six months.

A pair of horses hitched to a buggy got away from their driver and went tearing down Railroad avenue at a lively pace, yesterday morning, but he caught them before any serious damage was done.

This office was handed a postal card from a town way down in Arkansas, asking about Vegas, and saying that our fame has been heard of there, and the writer is almost persuaded to come and cast his lot with us.

Koogler, of the Las Vegas GAZETTE, and Campbell, of the Sun, engaged in tersely worded contest at the K. of P. Ball last night. The Miner man acted as critic, and reserves his decision until next week.—Socorro Miner.

Chief Roman has offered his services as guide to Captain Fountain's militia company at Mesilla. The company is expected to start on a scouting expedition in a few days. Signs of Indians have been seen in the country south of Mesilla.

We have received No. 1 of volume one of the Socorro Daily News, by G. W. McClintock. This little sheet is edited with quite a show of ability, and we hope it may survive the ills to which little newspapers are liable in their tender years, and grow to be a full fledged and full grown daily.

Mr. H. C. Graham, topographical surveyor, reports some fine coal discoveries at the little town of San Pedro. He says it is one of the finest deposits of coal west of Pennsylvania. The vein is seven feet thick and the coal has much the appearance of anthracite. The railroad company is now running a branch road from San Marcial to the mines, a distance of twelve miles.

Our esteemed friend and ancient comrade, Adolphe Mennett, one of the leading spirits of Browne & Manzanares, of Las Vegas, spent a day with his friends in Socorro last week. Mr. Mennett thinks of returning with his family in a short time, to remain permanently. Mrs. Mennett is one of the most accomplished vocalists in new Mexico, and would prove a great acquisition to our society.—New Mexican.

A big strike has been made during the last week on the property of Messrs. Hagan & McAlister, in the Gallinas. These parties have been developing their property for some time under the able management of Major Blakeley and have had from the surface a heavy body of carbonate and galena ore, very heavy in lead, and containing from 25 to 50 ounces in silver to the ton. Last week they uncovered in the bottom of their shaft a vein of quartz rich in horn silver, and which has since widened to two feet. This part of the crevice assayed into the thousands, sufficient to make the entire body a very rich grade ore. This good fortune to the owners of the mine is a consequence of having the pluck to work the property. This rich find has stimulated the miners of the district to commence work in earnest, and consequently we feel confident we shall have the pleasure of chronicling other valuable discoveries soon.—Socorro Daily News.

Two cases were up for adjudication yesterday evening in Judge Steele's court. One of them—The Territory vs. L. G. Burr, charged with assault upon Trinidad Sena was dismissed, there being no evidence that Mr. Burr had anything to do with the affair. The other was the Territory against Barton, charged with the same offense. Mr. Barton was found guilty and requested to contribute the sum of twenty-five dollars and the costs of the case to the city exchequer, or, if upon reflection, he should prefer to do so, he might accept the hospitalities of the county and evince his public spirit by aiding in the construction and repair of streets, etc., for the period of thirty days. Mr. Barton took the matter under advisement, and we presume will announce his decision in due time.

The particulars of the killing of Ike Stockton seem to be about as follows: He and a confederate named Cook came into Durango in a wagon. Stockton went up town and left Cook in the wagon. The sheriff and a deputy got the drop on Cook and ordered him to hold up. He complied and the officers handcuffed him and started off at once in search of Stockton. They came up with him on the street and the sheriff snatched him on the shoulder and demanded his surrender. He sprang to one side and attempted to draw his weapon, but the officers were too quick for him and shot him down before he could get his pistol out. His leg was amputated that night and he died at 3 o'clock on the following morning. Cook his pal, will be taken to Texas and tried upon the charge of murder and rape.

The town of Glorieta, on the summit of the range, near Glorieta pass, is improving considerably at present. A number of new houses are in course of erection and everything wears a business air. This place, in time, will make one of the finest mountain resorts in the west. The scenery in the vicinity cannot be surpassed in grandeur and the climate during the summer season especially is superb.

Mr. J. R. Thacker, a prominent mine owner and merchant of the Black Range, passed through Las Vegas, yesterday, on his way to Ohio, where he intends to spend the winter. Mr. Thacker is an old-timer in this country and he expresses himself as greatly flattered at the manner in which the material wealth of the Territory is being developed.

Capt. J. J. Fitzgerald, during the past two days has sold sixty-one lots, ranging in price from $75 to $1,100. A goodly number of these lots will be built upon. Two lots sold the Blythe Brothers on Railroad Avenue opposite Gross, Blackwell & Co., will soon have a large two-story stone business house erected, with fifty feet front.

A pair of horses attached to a buggy yesterday morning standing in front of Browne & Manzanares establishment took fright and started off at a lively pace down Railroad Avenue and would doubtless have smashed things up lively had they not been promptly checked up.
